Post-conference tours

Tours have been arranged (subject to sufficient numbers) to:

1. Fishbourne Roman Palace and Chichester
2. Fort Cumberland and Portsmouth Historic Dockyard
3. Stonehenge and Avebury
4. Winchester – Cathedral, Great Hall, Museum, Palace and College

All tours cost £40 and include coach, packed lunch, all entry fees and guides including members of our own staff. Wherever possible we have arranged access to specialist collections, to on-going archaeological work and to computational aspects of the archaeological sites and their presentation.

Bursaries

CAA offers a number of bursaries, funded out of the CAA membership fees. These bursaries are to support attendance at CAA2012 by students and others with limited financial resources. Preference will be given to those intending to present a paper or poster. You should provide an estimate of costs, a brief curriculum vitae and details of any other funding that you are applying for.

Applications for a bursary should be emailed as soon as possible to Patricia Murrieta-Flores (patymurrieta@gmail.com). Copies of your application will be made available to the CAA International Steering Committee who will make a decision on each application.
